

Wilderness Vision Quest

HIGH CALIFORNIA DESERT, MONO BASIN

“Our inner life is complete when it merges with nature and becomes one with it.”

– D.T. Suzuki

DATES: August 11-19, 2012

LOCATION: Inyo Mountains, high California desert

Anne Stine, MA, MFT, Guide

- A cross-cultural rite of passage, a journey of solitude and renewal to a remote desert wilderness area. Return to the inner source for clarification or vision of a life situation, question or transition, or mark a change from one stage of life to another.
- Connect with the earth cycles and enter into deep relationship with earth community.
- Participate in earth-based rites and self-generated ceremony, council, storytelling, reflective listening and more.
- No previous camping or backpacking experience necessary. All safety and survival skills provided.

Anne Stine, MA, MFT, is founder and director of Wilderness Rites, LLC. She has more than 35 years of experience as a counselor, ecopsychologist and wilderness rites-of-passage guide. Her programs include initiatory earth-based healing journeys (that assist people to reclaim their true place within the wisdom and cycles of nature), mentoring, teaching, guiding and training others in ecopsychology and earth rites.

Assistant: Susanne Petermann spent the better part of a decade studying and traveling in Europe and North Africa before settling in Oregon. Her journeys became inward when she discovered the vision fasting ceremony in 1993. She has published a book of translations of Rilke's poetry and continues to write and translate.
